- Request communications of your health information by alternative means or locations.
- Revoke your authorization to use or disclose health information.
- Obtain a copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices upon request.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

We will not use or disclose your health information without your authorization, except as described in this Notice. We will maintain your health information's privacy and provide you with a Notice as to our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to the information we collect and maintain about you. We will also abide by the terms of this Notice.

We reserve the right to change our practices to make the new provisions effective for all protected health information we maintain. We will notify you should our information practices change, as needed or required by law.

EXAMPLES OF USES OR DISCLOSURES FOR TREATMENT, PAYMENT, AND HEALTH OPERATIONS

We will use or disclose information for treatment. For example, Information obtained by a nurse, physician, or other members of your health care team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you. Your physician will document in your record his/her expectations of the members of your health care team. Members of your health care team will then record the actions they took and their observations. In that way, the physician will know how you are responding to treatment.

We will also provide your physician or a subsequent health care provider with copies of various reports that should assist him/her in treating you if you are referred to another facility.

We will use or disclose your health information for payment. For example, A bill may be sent to you or a third-party payer. The information on or accompanying the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedures, medication, and supplies used.

We will use or disclose your health information for regular health operations. For example, Our physicians or members of the quality improvement team may use information in your health record to assess the care and outcomes in your case and others like it. This information will then be used to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the health care and services we provide.
